

Word Work Folder and Letter Tiles

Supplies

Cardstock -- 4 pieces per folder (I used cream cardstock for the folder, and white for the letter tiles)

Laminating Pouches -- 4 sheets per folder

8.9 x 11.4 5mm Scotch laminating pouches, or something of similar quality.

Velcro dots -- 75 per tri-fold. 50 for letter tiles (more if you want to add in extra digraphs)

transparent velcro dots (set of 350 15mm dots for $9.99) The thinner ones are nice. Thicker ones may last longer.

Directions

Printing and Laminating

- Slides 3,4: print double sided and laminate. Do not trim.
- Slide 5: print single sided and laminate. Do not trim.
- Slides 6,7: print double sided and laminate. Do not trim.
- Slide 8 (letter tiles) print single sided– blank boxes for extra digraphs if needed. For added durability, cut letter tiles out separately before laminating. To keep tiles from sliding around, use a glue stick to put a small dot on the back of a letter tile, then place them in the laminating pouch with a little bit of space between each letter.
 - Laminate (send through twice for extra strength)
 - For ease, place Velcro dots on the back of each tile before cutting out individual tiles.
 - Trim around each letter tile.

Making your tri-fold folder:

Page 3/4 connects to page 5. Page 5 connects to page 6/7

- Lay laminated pages with the inside face down. Line up next to each other with a very small space between, so the connected pages will lay flat when folded on top of each other. Use clear packing tape to connect the pages. Trim excess tape off top and bottom.

Place the corresponding Velcro dots on the tri-fold folder in the empty boxes. If you use the loop side on the letters for one folder, you can use the hook side on the letters for the next folder. For two folders, it will end up with the same amount of hooks or loops, and there won't be wasted dots.

Hand sanitizer with a green scrubby cleans off dry erase marker.
