WHEN YOU WERE BORN

When you were born,
We cut your cord
and set you in a bed.

You slept and slept,
and you did snore
(a little bit).

You were so little!
We got milk for you.
You drank milk,
And more milk,
And more milk!

When you were born,
We adored you.
We still do.

THE STORE

We go to the store.

We get more ham for lunch.
Then we get corn and fish
and pork to grill.

We have four bucks left.
“Which do we want more?” I ask,
“The milk or the plums,
or the nuts or the hot dogs?”

I want all four.

Which do YOU want more?

CORN ON MY FORK

This is my fork.
With my fork, I sort my snacks.
Sort, sort, sort.

I tap the corn to the left.
I bump the pork to the top.
Then, I stack the bits of corn.

I stack, and stack,
and stack more!
1, 2, 3, four...

I stack ten!
I stack forty!

Then I lift my fork
And chomp all the corn! CHOMP!

BORIS AND NORRIS

Norris taps on his tablet.
Boris has a corn-cob.
“Catch!” yells Boris.
He tosses the corn.

Norris spins.
His tablet cord snags.
Ack!

The corn-cob
hits the door. THWACK!

Norris drops the tablet on the floor. CRACK!

Boris! Norris!

THE WORN, TORN DRESS

I got my dress for my fourth birthday
It is red with horses.
It is the best dress.

I am ten now,
And my red dress is worn.
My best red dress is torn.

But my gram will stitch it up.
And when I am too big for it,
I will gift it to my sis.

Then she can dress up in it more.
My best worn, torn, red dress.

GIFTS FOR US

Sam Cortez has a bag. He grins.

"I sorted my closet,
And I have gifts for you," he says.

"Ben, this horn is for you," he says.

"Soren, this plastic horse is for you."

"Loren, this sports helmet is for you!"

We grin. We like gifts for us.

PLANETS IN ORBIT

Planets orbit the sun.

“Orbit” is to travel in the form of a ring.

The sun tugs the planets.

This tug is what locks the planets in orbit.

Zip-zip-zip!

1 lap, 2 laps, 3 laps, four laps!

Planets can orbit fast or not.

Planet Earth orbits in 365 days.

Planet Jupiter orbits in more than four thousand days!

THE BEST SPORT

Which sport do you like more?

Do you like to swim?

Or is the best sport running?

Or do you like to catch or kick balls?

Or do you like to go and explore in the forest?

Or ... is the best sport
a sport with flips and hand-stands?

Which sport do YOU like more?

THOR: NORSE GOD

Thor is the Norse god of storms.

Up in Asgard, Thor smashes his hammer and a storm is born!

In Norway they have written stories of the glory of Thor for hundreds of years.

What do you think:

If a storm god and a sword god
clash, which will win?
